

Work Party at Famosa Slough

Saturday January 8

9 AM to 12 PM

San Diego Audubon Society and Friends of Famosa Slough invite volunteers to join in removing invasive plants, working on trails, taking care of California native plants, and cleaning up at the Famosa Slough Wildlife Preserve.

- Credit for Community Service is available •

Meet at the corner of West Point Loma Boulevard and Famosa Boulevard at 9:00 AM on Saturday, January 8. Wear work clothes (preferably long pants, long-sleeved shirt, and closed-toed shoes). If you have them, bring work gloves, sun protection (a hat and sunglasses); and bring a reusable water bottle.

Refreshments, gloves, and tools will be provided.

PLEASE NOTE: For volunteers 17 and under, we will require that a legal guardian signs the waivers of any minors; reach out to us at conservation@sandiegoaudubon.org to receive this waiver.

Please RSVP to info@famosaslough.org
